2025 Tasmanian Disability Expo

On behalf of Speak Out welcome to the

Disability Expo

Gearing Up for Choice and Control.

We are proud to again host Expos across Tasmania - in Devonport, Launceston and Hobart.

The Expos are an opportunity for people with disability, their families and carers, stakeholders, business and community to connect with each other, be aware of what is available, and continue to develop an inclusive Tasmania.

They are for the community and run by the community.

Thank you to everyone who is supporting them by exhibiting and coming along.

Every person living with a disability has different needs and will make different choices about how they wish to live their life.

Get information, ask questions, think about opportunities, talk to services about how they respond to changing needs. This will help you make choices and exercise control of your life.

Enjoy the Expo.

Call 1800 643 787 Monday to Friday, 8am - 8pm AEST/AEDT
(except national holidays)

Or submit an email enquiry at: disabilitygateway@benevolent.org.au

The Disability Gateway is a free, Australian government national service connecting people with disability, their families, and carers to trusted information and services. It is a central point of entry for providing information and referrals to disability supports and services in your local area.

Disability Gateway assists with information and referrals in employment, income and finance, transport, housing, education, rights and legal, health and wellbeing and more.

The Disability Gateway phone-line team provide one-on-one personalised support and research over the phone. They take the necessary steps to ensure that all the information they provide is accurate, so that you receive validated information and referrals to the services and programs you need.

Disability Gateway is for all Australians with disability, regardless of whether they have a National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) plan, and is also available to all providers and professionals who work with people with disability.

If you need support in a language other than English, the Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS) can help.

Call the Disability Gateway on 1800 643 787 and ask for an interpreter, or you can call the TIS National on 131 450 and ask them to connect you to the Disability Gateway.

Leaps Ahead Early Intervention

(03) 62737 505

admin@leapsaheadei.com.au

At Leaps Ahead Early Intervention (LAEI), we provide behaviour support, early intervention, and therapeutic supports for neurodiverse children and their families.

Our goal is to help children build everyday skills, confidence, and independence while reducing challenges and celebrating strengths.

Every program is personalised and designed to be fun and engaging, so children enjoy learning and stay motivated. We use evidence-based strategies to help children “learn how to learn,” supporting independence and long-term success.

Therapy and support can happen wherever children feel most comfortable—at home, school, in the community, or at our welcoming Glenorchy centre. To make services accessible, we also provide mobile supports across Tasmania, including the North, North West, and East.

As a registered NDIS provider, our mission is to empower families with the tools, knowledge, and support they need to help their children grow and thrive. We walk alongside families every step of the way—offering practical guidance, celebrating progress, and making learning a positive, confidence-building experience.

At LAEI, we believe every child deserves the chance to reach their full potential.

LGBTIQ+ Health Australia

Charbel Zada - Disability and Social Inclusion Lead

0487 299 170

charlie.zada@lgbtiqhealth.org.au

LGBTIQ+ Health Australia (LHA), founded in 2010, is the national peak body for LGBTIQ+ health and wellbeing for organisations and individuals that provide health-related programs, services and research focused on lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans/transgender, intersex, queer and other sexuality, gender, and bodily diverse people.

LHA members contribute a wealth of diverse expertise, capabilities, and capacities to the organisation. Together, we serve as a formidable and trusted voice.

LHA is guided by four foundational pillars of work: policy and influence, member engagement and support, partnerships and collaboration, and the national facilitation of capacity building programs.

We recognise that people's genders, bodies, relationships and sexualities affect their health and wellbeing in every domain of their life.

OR

www.lwb.org.au

Life Without Barriers is a leading social purpose organisation working in more than 400 communities across Australia. Our services currently support over 21,200 people nationwide.

When it comes to choosing the disability supports you need, Life Without Barriers is here to support your decisions, so you can live life the way you want to.

Support Coordination: Our Support Coordination service is across Australia and includes Support and Specialist Coordination and Recovery Coaching. We'll help you understand your NDIS plan and support you to choose and coordinate your services, so you can achieve your NDIS goals.

Employment Pathways: Our Employment Pathways provide people with disability a practical and enjoyable way to explore different options, enhance skills and capacity, and work towards employment goals. If you are of working age, including school to work transition, we'll work alongside you to engage you with work that is meaningful to you. Whatever your employment goal looks like, we're here to support you!

Behaviour Support: Our practitioners work with you and those around you to understand why behaviours happen and find possible solutions. This could include exploring ways to communicate needs, changes to the environment, and learning new skills to help meet a person's needs. When the behaviour causes problems for you or someone you love, our Behaviour Support practitioners can help.

MISSION AUSTRALIA

Delivering the NDIS in your community

03 6212 6850

ndisptc.missionaustralia.southeasttasmania@ndis.gov.au

Local Area Coordination (LAC) services can support all people from 9 and 64 years with disability, even if you aren't a NDIS participant.

We can help you:

- find practical information that's relevant to you.
- access the support you need through mainstream and community services.
- connect with people with similar experiences.
- apply to the NDIS. This includes helping you to submit your access request
- assist NDIS participants to understand and use the supports in their plan, and check-in with you during your plan to see how you are going and if the plan is working well for you.

Early Childhood (EC) coordinators are professionals with experience working with children younger than 6 with developmental delay and younger than 9 with disability and their families.

They will:

- Work with you to gather information about your child.
- Help you to find practical information about your situations.
- Suggest connection with mainstream and community supports near you.
- Connect you to families in your community who have similar situations.
- For children younger than six 6 with developmental concerns, recommend early supports.
- Help you understand if your child is likely to be eligible for a NDIS plan and what information and evidence you'll need to apply.

Community Engagement Facilitators (CEF) work with communities and multiple levels of government to create a more inclusive society and deliver improved outcomes for all people with disability.

National Disability Insurance Scheme

1800 800 110

enquiries@ndis.gov.au

The NDIS provides funding to eligible people with disability to gain more time with family and friends, greater independence, access to new skills, jobs, or volunteering in their community, and an improved quality of life.

The NDIS also connects anyone with disability to services in their community. This includes connections to doctors, community groups, sporting clubs, support groups, libraries and schools, as well as providing information about what support is provided by each state and territory government.

The NDIS now supports over 640,000 Australians with disability to access the services and supports they need. This includes supporting approximately 80,000 children with developmental delay, ensuring they receive supports early so that they achieve the best outcomes throughout their lives.

Office of the Anti-Discrimination Commissioner (OADC)

Office of the
Anti-Discrimination
Commissioner

 1300 305 062 • 03 6165 7515  office@antidiscrimination.tas.gov.au

Office of the Anti-Discrimination Commissioner is responsible for Tasmania's anti-discrimination law: the Anti-Discrimination Act 1998 (Tas).

Discrimination is when someone is treated unfairly because of something they can't change like their race, disability or who they love. The Anti-Discrimination Act makes discrimination, and other related conduct (such as offensive conduct and sexual harassment) unlawful.

What we do

- We take complaints and reports from people who have been treated in a way that is against the Anti-Discrimination Act.
- We educate people about discrimination and their rights.
- We give advice about programs, policies and laws to try to make sure discrimination does not happen in Tasmania.

How can we help?

- We talk to people who have questions about the Anti-Discrimination Act.
- We talk to people who may want to make a complaint, or report something, and people who want to make sure they are not discriminating.
- We can help people write down their complaints. It is free to make a complaint.
- We investigate complaints.
- We help people resolve their complaints.
- We deliver training and awareness sessions about the Anti-Discrimination Act.
- We can provide free materials like brochures and posters about discrimination that let people know about their rights.

Second Echo Ensemble

03 6108 1384

hello@secondechoensemble.org

Second Echo Ensemble [SEE] is an arts organisation based in nipaluna/Hobart.

Our mission is to redefine expectations of possibility; to challenge assumptions we hold about ourselves and others. We make art to shake up stereotypes and give voice to untold stories that result in real social change. We passionately believe that everyone, everywhere, has the right to thrive, to be seen, to be heard and to be a part of our community.

SERVICES

The SEE Pathways to Work Program addresses the barriers which prevent people from realising their ambitions and finding employment within the creative industries. It aims to support participants into regular community access programs, volunteering work, employment opportunities or a combination of the above, all depending on their individual goals and ambitions.

In our Pathways to Work Program participants will have the opportunity to:

- Develop skills in art making, performance, art administration, and broader work in the arts sector.
- Connect with other artists, who work to make art in inclusive spaces.
- Connect to the arts sector through events and performances.
- Perform and create your own work to be shared with the public.
- Build job readiness.
- Supported access to work and work-placements.

Our Pathways to Work Program includes the following components:

- Community workshops - where attendees build skills and develop confidence;
- Work Placements and Traineeships;
- The Core - Our professional ensemble of artists who have transitioned through our traineeship programs into ongoing employment.
